

Heritage

Fig Tree

Key details

Addresses	At 413 Ipswich Road, Annerley, Queensland 4051
Type of place	Tree/s
Period	Federation 1890-1914
Lot plan	L5_SP128808
Key dates	Local Heritage Place Since — 1 July 2005 Date of Information — October 2015

Located on the embankment outside Annerley Junction Hotel, this landmark fig tree is the last remaining on Ipswich Road from a series of beautification works in the early twentieth century. Circa 1911-15 a large number of fig trees had been planted along Ipswich Rd in Annerley, reputedly as part of a commemorative event for the newly-named suburb. From as early as the mid-1930s, the trees were progressively removed from the roadway.

---

Copyright Brisbane City Council

Note: This information has been prepared on the basis of evidence available at the time including an external examination of the building. The statement of significance is a summary of the most culturally important aspects of the property based on the available evidence, and may be re-assessed if further information becomes available. The purpose of this information is to provide an informed evaluation for heritage registration and information. This does not negate the necessity for a thorough conservation study by a qualified practitioner, before any action is taken which may affect its heritage significance.

prepared by — Brisbane City Council (page revised March 2023)

Dedicated to a better Brisbane