

Heritage Information

Please contact us for more information about this place:
heritage@brisbane.qld.gov.au -OR- phone 07 3403 8888

Hitching post & seat

Key details

Addresses	Outside 594 Old Cleveland Road, Camp Hill, Queensland 4152
Type of place	Hitching post
Period	Interwar 1919-1939
Geolocation	-27.492646 153.075061
Key dates	Local Heritage Place Since — 1 January 2004 Date of Information — January 2015
Criterion for listing	(A) Historical; (B) Rarity

This timber hitching post and seat is associated with Salm's Mount Bruce Butcher shop. Carl Salm established the business in 1914 in premises on Stanley Street. In 1930 he moved his business to the current site. The timber hitching post and seat are evidence of the Camp Hill's commercial growth as the area's population increased.

Statement of significance

Relevant assessment criteria

This is a place of local heritage significance and meets one or more of the local heritage criteria under the Heritage planning scheme policy of the Brisbane City Plan 2014. It is significant because:

Historical

CRITERION A

The place is important in demonstrating the evolution or pattern of the city's or local area's history as a timber hitching post and seat associated with early Camp Hill business, Salm's Mount Bruce Butchers it is evidence of Camp Hill's suburban and commercial growth in the interwar era.

Rarity

CRITERION B

The place demonstrates rare, uncommon or endangered aspects of the city's or local area's cultural heritage as an interwar timber hitching post and seat.

Copyright Brisbane City Council

Note: This information has been prepared on the basis of evidence available at the time including an external examination of the building. The statement of significance is a summary of the most culturally important aspects of the property based on the available evidence, and may be re-assessed if further information becomes available. The purpose of this information is to provide an informed evaluation for heritage registration and information. This does not negate the necessity for a thorough conservation study by a qualified practitioner, before any action is taken which may affect its heritage significance.

Information prepared by — Brisbane City Council (page revised September 2020)

Dedicated to a better Brisbane