

Heritage Citation

Tram Stop (former)

Key details

Addresses

Outside 307 Old Cleveland Road, Coorparoo, Queensland 4151

Type of place	Tram / bus shelter
Period	Interwar 1919-1939
Geolocation	-27.494728 153.059297
Key dates	Local Heritage Place Since — 1 July 2005
Criterion for listing	(A) Historical

This tram stop post was first installed in 1925 and served as a tram stop until 1955, when trams ceased to run on Cavendish Road. It is significant for the evidence it provides of the tramway system as well as the progressive policies of the Jolly administration of the first Greater Brisbane Council. It also demonstrates the needs of the growing population in the Coorparoo area.

Statement of significance

Relevant assessment criteria

This is a place of local heritage significance and meets one or more of the local heritage criteria under the Heritage planning scheme policy of the Brisbane City Plan 2014. It is significant because:

Historical

CRITERION A

The place is important in demonstrating the evolution or pattern of the city's or local area's history for the evidence it provides of the development of the tramway system in Brisbane, particularly the improvement program undertaken by the first Greater Brisbane Council.

Copyright Brisbane City Council

Note: This citation has been prepared on the basis of evidence available at the time including an external examination of the building. The statement of significance is a summary of the most culturally important aspects of the property based on the available evidence, and may be re-assessed if further information becomes available. The purpose of this citation is to provide an informed evaluation for heritage registration and information. This does not negate the necessity for a thorough conservation study by a qualified practitioner, before any action is taken which may affect its heritage significance.

Citation prepared by — Brisbane City Council (page revised June 2022)

Dedicated to a better Brisbane